Introduction

The BFI Film Audience Network (FAN) reaches out across the UK to ensure people have the maximum possible opportunity to watch and enjoy a broad screen culture, regardless of location or circumstance.

As part of FAN, Film Hub South East (FHSE) has been awarded funding from the BFI National Lottery to support the region's film exhibitors in their efforts to reach a wide, diverse audience with independent British and international film and deliver against the priorities set out in the BFI's Screen Culture 2033 strategy.

We support organisations that screen film to a public audience, from cinemas, mixed arts venues, film festivals, film societies and community groups to maintain and grow an inclusive sector.

What is the Film Exhibition Fund: under £3k?

We are now seeking proposals from Hub members to support activity commencing between April 2024 and March 2025 that will help us meet FAN's objectives.

The Film Exhibition Fund: under £3k supports FAN members' cultural programming and the engagment of a broad, diverse audience. It is open to all organisations in Film Hub South East's exhibitor network.

A key priority of the fund is to encourage film exhibitors to embed inclusion and environmental sustainability into their approach to activity.

All proposals should respond to Film Hub South East's key strategic objectives, which are outlined in the following pages. Hub Members must also be able to set out how they will address the $\underline{\sf BFI \, Diversity \, Standards}$.

The Film Exhibition Fund: under £3k is intended to support activity in any format that is relatively short in length and/or small in scale, with delivery taking place between April 2024 and March 2025. Members can apply for support for programming, marketing and associated costs.

What are our strategic objectives?

The following are key priorities for Film Hub South East, and reflect those of the BFI's Screen Culture 2033 strategy. Proposals must be focussed on one or more of these areas:

Children and young people

Opportunities for children, families, and young people (aged 25 and under) to experience a broader screen culture. Stimulating an appetite for a diversity of film and screen content and to deepen understanding. Activity focused on young audiences may target a segment of the audience or the group as a whole.

Access to a wider choice of film

To support public access to and enjoyment of the widest range of film and the moving image - including UK and international film, documentaries, TV and screen heritage (especially those heritage collections that reflect the diversity of the South East).

We are committed to ensuring that a range of film and moving image works are made accessible to all communities, including stories that reflect their lives. The big screen, collective experience remains our focus. We can only support online screening activity in exceptional cases where there is a clear rationale for using online screenings to reach audiences that could not otherwise experience in-person screenings. There will need to be a specific plan outlining how these target audiences will be engaged and how the success of reaching these audiences with online screenings is to be measured. Projects exploring the opportunities offered by immersive and interactive technologies are also of interest.

Tackling barriers

Working to tackle social, economic and geographic barriers to audiences, by addressing the obstructions presented by cost, physical access, sense of risk, and limited onscreen representation. Particular attention will be paid to projects engaging audiences from working class backgrounds and those experiencing economic challenges currently, as well as proposals that address under-representation among disabled people, people of African or Caribbean heritage, people of South, East, and South East Asian heritage.

Our commitment to inclusion

BFI Diversity Standards

In line with the BFI Diversity Standards we encourage activity aimed at, and/or co-produced with, under-represented groups. The Standards focus on under-representation in relation to age, disability, ethnicity, gender, LGBTQ+, religion and belief (as they pertain to the Equality Act 2010), as well as socio-economic background and geographical location.

We are particularly committed to ensuring disproportionately affected audiences – such as disabled, Deaf, and neurodivergent people; people of African or Caribbean heritage and people of South, East, or South East Asian heritage – can experience independent film and be welcomed into cinema spaces.

All Film Exhibition Fund: under £3k proposals should endeavour to promote inclusivity among audiences, on screen and, where applicable, in the workforce.

The Hub team is on hand to help applicants engage with the BFI Diversity Standards; please $\underline{\text{contact us}}$ for more information.

Additional areas of focus

Environmental sustainability

We are committed to minimising the negative environmental impact of the work we support and ask all funding recipients to minimise the environmental impact of your activity as well as increase your positive impact.

We have put together a Green Cinema Toolkit that might be useful when planning around sustainability. The BFI also has a number of recommended resources, and will provide dedicated expertise to award recipients.

Prevention of bullying, harassment and racism

Bullying, harassment and racism have no place in our industries, and we expect all organisations we support to share our commitment to this principle. The BFI and BAFTA have developed a set of principles and zero-tolerance guidance in consultation with organisations, unions and industry bodies across the film, television and games industry in response to urgent and systemic issues. These documents can be found in the bullying and harassment prevention hub.

We ask all applicants to engage with these principles by, at a minimum, reading these documents and sharing them within your organisation. All our funding agreements include a warranty seeking compliance with all applicable legislation and codes of practice relating to this matter.

Safeguarding

For initiatives involving children, young people or vulnerable adults, applicants are required to put in place safeguarding and child protection policies before any activity takes place. The same applies if a third party is making use of the awarded funds to deliver activity on your behalf. If you do not currently have a policy in place, please get in touch and we can signpost you to additional resources to help you to develop your policy.

Environmental sustainability, safeguarding and bullying and harassment are not formal assessment criteria, but the information you provide will be used to gauge how we may support you further in this area. If a proposed action will incur modest additional costs, you can include these in your budget for consideration.

The Film Exhibition Fund uses funds from the National Lottery which can only be allocated to proposals that demonstrate a clear public benefit from the activity.

How to apply

Instructions are provided in the following pages. If you have particular access requirements (eg. easy read documents), would like to submit your proposal in another way, or have any queries about the process, please get in touch with our team who will be happy to discuss this.

If you have access requirements that mean you need assistance with composing and submitting a proposal, you may be able to find support through the BFI Access Support Scheme. Find out more.

To submit a proposal you will need to complete:

- a proposal form, and
- a budget

Download copies of these documents on our website.

The proposal form will give you the opportunity to describe your activity and how it contributes to Film Hub South East's priorities.

If you have any questions about the fund, the submission process or would like to discuss your proposal before applying please get in touch at filmhubse@independentcinemaoffice.org.uk.

Assessment criteria

Your proposal will be assessed by the Film Hub South East team. We will specifically look at:

- Activity eligibility: does the proposed activity clearly meet the priorities of the fund?
- Audience reach: what are the audience targets, how have these been calculated, and is the planned activity likely to achieve them? Subsidy per head will be a consideration, as will your stated goals relating to diversity and inclusivity.
- Impact: what is the cultural ambition of the proposed programme?
- Organisational experience: is the organisation able to carry out the proposed activity?
- Budget: are all reasonable costs considered? Does the budget balance and are all costs eligible?
- BFI Diversity Standards: does the proposal embrace the BFI Diversity Standards?
- Environmental sustainability: has consideration been given to the environmental impact of your planned activity?

Please note that we expect this fund to be oversubscribed and may not be able to fund your activity even if it meets the criteria.

With numerous eligible proposals we must take into consideration how closely projects align with the priorities of the fund, the geographic spread of support across the South East region, the types of projects being supported and the audiences they are trying to engage. We hope this doesn't deter you from submitting a proposal, but rather provides wider context if you are not successful or receive an offer for less support.

Decisions and feedback

Unsuccessful proposals

If you are unsuccessful in your proposal, you will be contacted by email. Being unsuccessful does not prevent you from submitting a new and different proposal or accessing future Hub opportunities, including other open funds and bursaries.

Successful proposals

If your proposal is successful, the assessment panel may discuss any required amendments and wish to see a revised plan before confirming funding. This process can take additional time. Activity timelines will need to accommodate this.

If there are no recommendations or amendments to be made you will be sent an email approving your application and an agreement setting out the terms and conditions attached to the funding. These will cover payment information, crediting guidelines, and monitoring and reporting requirements. The Hub will also undertake an ID check on the lead applicant as part of our due diligence processes. Audiences will need to be surveyed using our standard template for all funded activity – please bear this in mind when planning your evaluation strategies.

Please note that final confirmation of support will be subject to the availability of Lottery Funding.

Complaints and appeals

The funding decision is final. Inevitably, applications will be turned down and applicants may be disappointed. Formal appeals against the final decision will not be considered unless the applicant has good cause to believe that the procedures for processing the application were not adhered to, or applied in such as a way as to prejudice the outcome of the application.
